CHARLEY ROSS.

Tas It He Who Was Discovered in St. Paul, but Has Mysteriously Disap-peared 1—An Interesting Chapter. [From the St. Paul (Minn.) Press.] The widespread interest in the great abduction

The widespread interest in the great and ction made has not tatled to reach by Paul. It has long seen sumored that the abductor had as his destination Minnesota, and it is not now definitely mown but that he has visited this city. Many things lead to the belief that he has. As long ago is the last of August a letter was published in the New York Herald, and reprinted in the Press of th which gave the experience of a gentleman as the las of Augusts a letter was published in the New Your Herald, and reprinted in the Press of the 7th, which gave the experience of a gentleman who rode on the train with a man and boy whom he afterward believed to be the lost Charley and his abductor. The circumstance and appearance of the boy pointed stron by to that councilision. Dering a conversation the man in whose custody the little is low was at the time said that he had formerly been a resident of Missouri, but was coming to minnesots.

These lew haves by way of introduction. During the past week a little boy neatry and a cely dressed and anawering the many particulars to the description given of the minesing charley, was often noticed by many playing on Jackson street and above its junction with inlied, his dress and his bright intendent ince had much to do with attracting one toward him and inducing a second look at his race, hamy have borne witness to this fact, among the number case of Police Mellitath, who spoke to the listic fellow and had some conversation with him. During his chair a man or rough appearance who had bring about dessent's low dive on decision street, near the levee, put in an appearance and summarily touk the boy away. The man so evidently in appearance was not of the saine field standard bring good brecuring, that the time field hat fact that the boy was chairey koss. But comparing his appearance with the missing thories and showing good brecuring, that the limp he made to correspond in many particulars, though there were traces evidently. At that time he was not in possession, nor had he seen a likeness of those in possession, nor had he seen a likeness of those in possession, nor had he seen a likeness of these in heart of the min was there, one not the most periect.

Late Friday avening the Olise, in a roundabout way, came into the possession of a woodcut illustration of themery were marked him is very remarkably like the little boy he had seen playing on section of the court of the court had seen in the passession of a

HORRIBLE, IF TRUE A Self-Confessed Murderer of Eleven of His Hiegitimate Children.

The Lebanon (Pa.) News contains the following starting, information: — We are creditably inprinced by a gentleman that the family of Mr. East Hanover township, this county, some few rears ago, returned home from near Springfield, Ohio, about three weeks since. In a conversation to had with them yesterday they stated that after he had with them yesterday they stated that after going from this county they went on a farm purchased by Mr. Wagner, within six miles of Springleid, where they have been residing up to this time. The cause for their return is, as they stated, because Mr. Wagner was to be hanged to-day for the murder of an infant child of which be was the later. Rumors of his being the ather of several children by women in his employ walle residing here were prevalent at the time, but their disappearance was never accounted for. Since his re-idence in the weet he is slieged for. Since his re-idence in the weet he is alleged for. Since his re-idence in the weet he is alleged to have been guity of the same thing, and his last attempt at destroying the hie of an inlant was detected by his sons, who brought him to justice. The excitement incident to the occasion brought. The excitement incident to the occasion brought out an alleged attempt at lynching arm, which was avoided by his concessing to having destroyed the lives of eleven illegi limite children, or which he was state fatter, at various times. Upon this confession he was sentenced to be living, and the day of excention is to-day. These are the facte as they have been given to us, and we paulish them for what they are worth."

AN ACT OF UNPARALLELED BRAVERY. A Detroit Man Elopes with a Mother

[From the Detroit Free Press.] te a common affair, if a man loves some wife better than his own, or some single an better than his wife, for him to take clope to parts where they can live and love ore of years that a man becomes so injatuated with a woman, sud an old woman at that, that he with a woman, and an old woman as that, that he wist take her six chistores along in their fight, such a case has occurred in this city. A man named Myron is, Adams, employed in the car wheel loundry at foledo, and, intending to remove there, had his family in fooms with another lamily as Ghestont street. He was here two weeks ago and remeved them to the house, and went back to Toedo to rent a house and make preparations for their arrival. He telegraphed twice last week for them, to come no, and then wrote his wife, but receiving no anawers he resched here yesterday morning to find that hief left Defroit a week ago by the filint and even Marquette road, in charge of a man twenty-leven years old named Charles Taylor, a car Pere Marquette road, in charge of a man twentyseven years old named Charles Taylor, a car painter by teads. This man used to board with Adams, but was kicked out of doors for showing too much attention to Mra Adams. The husband learned that as soon as he had gone Taylor came to see his wife, had a long interview with her, and finnity sold part of her goods and shipped the rest to First, and then took the whole family and departed. Adams will go to Filmt to day to get his children, the oldest of whom is a girl of fifteen, but he will have nothing more to say to his wife. He says she is weak-minded, easily flattered and not over g. od-tooking, and it Taylor wants her he is welcome to keep her.

BISMARCH AND THE ENGLISH ORANGEMEN. At the last quarterly meeting of delegate officers of the Grand Protestant Association of Loyal Orangemen of Eugland, Southern district, a resointion was unanimously adopted congratulating Prince Bismarck on his escape from assassination and expressing the sympathy of the officers with the reat Protestant movement now being carried the reat Protestant movement now being carried out by him in Germany. In reply, Count Munster writes:—"I have not tailed to forward to its high destination the resolution enclosed in your lether of the 24th nit. According to orders lately received, I feel very happy in expressing to the Grand Protestant Association of Loyal Orangement the gratitude of His Serene Highness the Prince Hismarck for that sign of sympathy shown by them on the occasion of the very sad event of the attempt on His Highness' life."
